

HOW CAN I KNOW WHAT IS GOING ON AROUND THE WORLD OF DOGS? WORLDOG HAS THE ANSWER

1st August, 2012 – WorldDog, website with information about the world of dogs, is launching a new generation of dog magazine, called WDzine, a new technology that allows you to see dogs from every place in the world in an interactive way.

Existing dog magazines, are focused on their own country and ignore the new tendency of a globalized world. WDzine connects readers to dogs, dog events, articles, news, photographic coverages and calendar of events around the world. And more important than anything else, it brings dog lovers together!

Readers can know what is going on in the biggest dog events in the world. They can know about others dog breeds from the five continents. They will find coverage of dog events, interviews with breeders and judges and articles about dog shows, agility, herding, mushing and hunting events. Kennels are able to reach dog lovers from more than 100 countries.

And easier than ever before, WDzine can be navigated from their computers or even from their tablets or smartphones and better, for free.

For more information, or to request an interview or content materials, please contact:

Thaynan Mariano Costa
thaynan@worldog.com

Facebook: <http://facebook.com/worldog>
Twitter: <http://twitter.com/WDzine>